STANLEY ROBERT RICH

MRS STANLEY ROBERT RICH of 363 North Quaker Lane, West Hartford, Connecticut, advised on February 3, 1966 that he is currently employed as a physicist by the Lodding Engineering Company of Worcester, Massachusetts, manufacturers of food processing and paper-making machinery.

RICH stated that, after graduation from the College of the City of New York as an Electrical Engineer in 1938, he was employed by the United States Navy Department at the Brooklyn Navy Yard and relinquished that position to take employment at the Harvard Underwater Sound Laboratory, Cambridge, Massachusetts, in February or March, 1943. He had been married in 1939 and he and his wife and child (born 1942) resided on Linnaean Street, in Cambridge. Another child was born to the couple in 1943.

RICH related that no former fellow students from the College of the City of New York were employed at the Harvard Underwater Sound Laboratory and that he knew of no such persons employed or taking training in the Boston area at that time. He added that, in fact, he and his wife, who like him had always lived in the New York City area, were entirely unacquainted in the Cambridge area and came to know only a few people who resided in the apartment building in which they lived. RICH also stated that much of his work, being of a research nature, was carried on aboard various vessels in the Boston Harbor area and left little opportunity for the development of social contacts.

RICH, who appears to have a better than average memory, stated with certainty that he definitely could not recall being present at a dinner held in a restaurant (possibly a Chinese restaurant) in Cambridge or the Boston area for a group of men who had been under training at educational facilities in Cambridge or Boston and were leaving to return to their posts of assignment. He related that this would have been a somewhat unusual gathering and that he felt certain that it would have been one that he would recall.

ReNHlet, 2/16/66, enclosing LHM, setting forth interview of STANLEY RICH.

NY let, 10/26/65, pointed out that interview of JOSEPH GOLDFIELD prior to that of RICH might prejudice interview of RICH since the degree of association between RICH and GOLDFIELD was not known.

Since RICH has now been interviewed, no reason exists for the withholding of interview of GOLDFIELD. It is therefore recommended that Newark arrange interview of GOLDFIELD, who resides at 43 Myrtle Avenue, North Plainfield, New Jersey.

It is suggested that GOLDFIELD be questioned as to his knowledge and relations with RICH, making particular reference to the Spring of 1943, and later, when RICH was at the Harvard Underwater Sound Laboratory and GOLDFIELD was attached to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology engaged in research work for the Army Chemical Warfare Service. GOLDFIELD should also be questioned as to his knowledge of and relations with IRVING R. WEINGARTEN and information he may possess concerning the association of WEINGARTEN and RICH. It should not be disclosed to GOLDFIELD that WEINGARTEN furnished the information which is the basis of current inquiry regarding RICH.

While inquiry in this matter has been directed to verifying, if possible, the allegations of WEINGARTEN that RICH solicited him to furnish information to the Soviets, it is not inconceivable that GOLDFIELD, by reason of his Communist background and position with the Chemical Warfare Service, may also have been solicited by RICH or others.

It is also suggested that Newark, in interview, be alert to any indication that GOLDFIELD might be willing to discuss his own C.P. membership.

NOTE:

An allegation was received from Irving Weingarten that a former classmate of his at the College of the City of New York approached him in May, 1943, for information to be furnished to the Soviets. The classmate is Stanley Rich. Weingarten claimed that in May, 1943, Rich was at the Harvard Underwater Sound Laboratory and Weingarten was in the U. S. Army attending a radio course at Harvard. He said the approach was made after a dinner at a Chinese restaurant which was a farewell dinner. Rich has denied any knowledge of this allegation and two of the other three men alleged to be at the dinner have been interviewed and cannot recall the dinner. The third man, Joseph Goldfield, was not interviewed due to his CP background and the possibility he might warn Rich. Rich has been interviewed and it is believed the possibility of interviewing Goldfield should be reconsidered. Weingarten is [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: STANLEY ROBERT RICH
ESP - R

DATE: APR 13 1966

Re New York letter dated 2/24/66 and Bureau letter dated 3/11/66.

This investigation is predicated upon information that IRVING WEINGARTEN has alleged that RICH, a former classmate from City College of New York approached him in May, 1943, and told him that he could send any information WEINGARTEN could obtain to a Russian officer. WEINGARTEN has stated that the alleged approach was made at a dinner in May, 1943, at a Chinese restaurant in Boston, Mass., and was possibly a farewell type dinner. He has stated that present at the dinner were ADRIAN BLUMENFELD and his wife, CRAIG REYNOLDS and his wife, JOSEPH GOLDFIELD, STANLEY RICH, and he (WEINGARTEN) and his wife.

BLUMENFELD, REYNOLDS, and RICH have been interviewed and do not substantiate WEINGARTEN's allegation.

RICH, when interviewed in February, 1966, advised that he was employed at the Harvard Underwater Sound Laboratory, Cambridge, Mass., in February or March, 1943, and that no former students from CCNY were employed at the Harvard Underwater Sound Laboratory and that he knew of no such persons employed or taking training in the Boston area at that time.

New York report dated 8/16/50 captioned, "STANLEY ROBERT RICH, ESP - R", on page 7, indicates that a review of personnel records at the Naval Supply Depot, Mechanicsburg, Pa., reflects that RICH resigned from the Brooklyn Navy Yard on 6/10/43 to accept employment with the National Defense Research Committee, Underwater Sound Laboratory, Cambridge, Mass.

Baltimore report dated 8/25/46 captioned "ROSLYN GOLDFIELD, SM - C" on page 2 reflects that JOSEPH GOLDFIELD as of 6/5/43 was transferred from Edgewood Arsenal, Md., to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

From the above, it appears that both RICH and GOLDFIELD arrived in the Boston, Mass., area subsequent to WEINGARTEN's departure. Each, however, may have been in that area prior to their official transfer or starting date mentioned above.

For the information of the Bureau, the following subversive information concerning GOLDFIELD and his family is being set forth:

Newark indices indicate that JOSEPH GOLDFIELD was a member of the Steinmetz Club of the YOUNG COMMUNIST LEAGUE at CCNY around 1937 or 1938; that he was a member of the Henry Thoreau Branch of the COMMUNIST POLITICAL ASSOCIATION as of 11/23/44 at Cambridge, Mass.; and that his wife ROSLYN was a member of the Cambridge CPAs of 11/20/44.

The New York Office has advised that its files contain the following information concerning CP membership of the family of JOSEPH GOLDFIELD:

ABRAHAM GOLDFIELD, now deceased (Bufile 100-396254, New York File 100-87519), father of JOSEPH, and ABRAHAM's wife, VIOLA (Bufile 100-427918, New York File 100-132753), according to BU 239-S on 2/21/57 and 6/4/57, were active CP members of the Bensonhurst Section Kings County, New York, CP during the period 1949 to 1953. ABRAHAM GOLDFIELD signed a CP nominating petition in 1948.

ABRAHAM GOLDFIELD in public testimony before the "Rapp-Coudert" Committee, a joint committee of the NYS Legislature investigating the public educational system of NYS in 1941, testified under oath on 3/7/41 that he was not a communist but admitted membership in the I.W.O. He admitted that he set up type in his shop for communist publication and admitted making payments to the CP in the form of advertisements. GOLDFIELD, on the same date, was identified by WILLIAM MARTIN CANNING as having told CANNING that he was a communist. GOLDFIELD testified that he was born in Odessa, Russia, had been in the United States for 26 years, had taken out his first papers but had not become a citizen of the United States.

INS records showed that he was naturalized 1/1/44, at the EDNY. He listed as among his children, JOSEPH, born 9/11/18, at Brooklyn, New York. His petition was witnessed by JOSEPH GOLDFIELD, 1938 67th Avenue, Brooklyn, who gave his occupation as an engineer.

Upon interview with FBI Agents on 1/14/53, ABRAHAM GOLDFIELD denied that he was then or ever had been a member of the CP. He refused to name his children. He said he did not know any active or past members of the CP and, even if he did, he would not give their names.

ABRAHAM GOLDFIELD died on 9/20/53.

VIOLA (WITTIA) GOLDFIELD, (wife of ABRAHAM), and apparently stepmother of JOSEPH GOLDFIELD, signed CP nominating petitions in 1940, 1941, and 1948. She was shown as an ALP county committee member on 1951 nominating petitions. She was a subscriber to "The Worker" in 1950. On 6/17/58, she was contacted by Agents of the FBI and refused interview.

MARTIN GOLDFIELD (Bufile 100-419624, New York File 100-126046), brother of JOSEPH GOLDFIELD, furnished a signed statement to SAS of the New Orleans Office on 3/5/56. MARTIN GOLDFIELD was an instructor at the Tulane University Medical School. He was born 3/18/21, at Brooklyn, New York, the son of ABRAHAM and MOLLIE GOLDFIELD, both of whom he stated were deceased. MARTIN GOLDFIELD stated that he was a member of the WCL from 1936 to 1941. After Army service, he worked in the Boston area and registered with the CP there in January or February, 1946. He said he he had attended about five meetings and then lost interest and had not attended any CP meetings since then.

On 3/5/56, MARTIN GOLDFIELD stated that his late father, ABRAHAM GOLDFIELD, and his brother, JOSEPH GOLDFIELD, had both been members of the CP.

NK 105-18194

The name of ELIZABETH JUDITH GOLDFIELD (apparently the half-sister of JOSEPH GOLDFIELD), of 2109 85th Street, Brooklyn, New York, was on a passenger list prepared by the United Festival Committee for the Seventh World Youth Festival held in Vienna, Austria, during the summer of 1959. She was identified as a member of the US Festival Committee. She was issued US passport on 4/27/59.

With reference to the Rapp-Coudert Committee hearings mentioned above, records made available on a very confidential basis, show that ABRAHAM GOLDFIELD testified in private hearings before the committee on 2/5, 2/7 and 2/13/41. The record also shows that JOSEPH GOLDFIELD testified in private hearings on 2/7 and 2/13/41. The NYO does not possess the testimonies of JOSEPH and ABRAHAM GOLDFIELD on these occasions.

Records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, show that JOE GOLDFIELD, 1803 81st Street, Brooklyn, signed CPNP in 1939. JOSEPH GOLDFIELD, 6614 17th Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, signed three CPNP's in 1940.

JOSEPH GOLDFIELD was interviewed by the FBI on 12/2/54 concerning his knowledge of AARON HYMAN COLEMAN and again on 7/9/57 concerning GERALD DAVID SMOLIAR, both graduates of CCNY and subjects of Bureau investigations. He claims he did not recall either subject.

Newark files contain no information concerning JOSEPH GOLDFIELD's CP membership since 1944.

Newark recommends that GOLDFIELD be interviewed concerning his knowledge and relationship with RICH with particular reference to the spring of 1943 and also as to his relationship and knowledge of IRVING WEINGARTEN and to obtain his version of the incident upon which this investigation is based and to determine whether he can furnish any additional information which might resolve this allegation.

An interview with GOLDFIELD would also complete the interviews of all persons alleged by WEINGARTEN to have been present at the dinner in May, 1943, and enable the New York and New Haven Offices to more fully evaluate the information furnished by WEINGARTEN.

VC M | In the event GOLDFIELD is cooperative, he will be questioned concerning his own CP membership.

NOTE:

Goldfield is currently employed by Johns-Manville Corporation in the engineering and research center at FINDERNE, New Jersey. He is not working on any classified contracts. This investigation is based on information furnished by Irving Weingarten that Rich, a former classmate from the College of the City of New York, had approached him in May, 1943, soliciting information which he said could be furnished to a Soviet. Weingarten said this approach was made at a dinner at a Chinese restaurant at Boston, Massachusetts, in May, 1943. Rich at that time was at the Harvard Underwater Sound Laboratory and Weingarten was in the U. S. Army Air Corp attending school at Harvard. Two other men allegedly at this dinner were interviewed and were unable to recall the dinner. The third man who was also at that dinner is Joseph Goldfield. We did not interview him before we interviewed Rich since he has a Communist Party background, since we felt he might tell Rich of the interview. Rich has been interviewed and denied making any such approach. Weingarten is currently [redacted] and the validity of his information is doubtful, however, it is felt we should explore this fully by interviewing Goldfield.

He stated that JOSEPH GOLDFIELD, whom he also recalled as present at the 1943 dinner, had been generally active in Communist activities at CCNY. He said that in later meetings with GOLDFIELD, particularly in Plainfield, NJ, in the late 1950's, GOLDFIELD had not given any indication of interest in such activities. STANLEY ROBERT RICH

On May 4, 1966, Joseph Goldfield advised Special Agent Harry A. Fisher, Jr., and Special Agent John W. Sade that he is employed as a Staff Section Chief in heating, ventilating, air-conditioning and dust control at the Engineering and Research Center, Johns-Manville Corporation, FINDERNE AVENUE, FINDERNE, New Jersey.

He advised that he was employed by the Army Chemical Warfare Service at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Cambridge, Massachusetts, from March, 1943, to 1946 (the exact dates unrecalled) and that he resided on Cambridge Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, exact street number not recalled.

He stated that for a while, until after the birth of his son on May 2, 1943, he resided there alone while his wife lived with her parents. He advised that he spent almost all of his spare time before her arrival looking for an apartment.

Goldfield could not recall ever attending a dinner at a Chinese restaurant or at the Red Coach Restaurant in the Boston area. He felt he would have recalled attending such a dinner as he is fond of Chinese food and because he rarely dined out.

MASS NJ The names Adrian Blumenfeld and Craig Reynolds were unknown to him and he could not recall ever meeting them. He recalled Irving Weingarten as a person he knew at the City College of New York (CCNY) and as an individual he met accidentally in the Boston area. They also met while both resided in the North Plainfield, New Jersey, area. He stated no LOC that no close relationship developed as they lacked mutual interests.

Goldfield identified a photograph of Stanley Robert Rich saying he vaguely recalled such a person and may have met him, but could not remember the circumstances of such a meeting.

Goldfield emphatically denied ever hearing anyone soliciting information on behalf of the Soviet Union. He said nobody ever requested his cooperation in such a matter and that he never divulged classified data to unauthorized individuals.

Goldfield mentioned that he was a member of the Young Communist League prior to his Government employment, but denied ever participating in such activities while employed by the United States Government and was reluctant to discuss his association with such groups.

The Young Communist League has been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NK T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised prior to June, 1946, that one Joseph Goldfield, 1699 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, was listed as a member of the Henry Thoreau Branch of the Communist Political Association as of November 23, 1944. His occupation was listed as chemist - Government.

The Communist Political Association has been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.
